Horizon 1980

York College of Pennsylvania
York, Pennsylvania 17405

Volume 38

A blurry, motion-blurred photograph of a road scene. On the left side of the frame, a road sign is mounted on a pole. The sign has a dark border and contains white text that reads "York College of Penna" on the first two lines, and "SECOND RIGHT" on the third line. The background shows a road curving to the right, with some trees and bushes along the sides. The overall image has a soft, out-of-focus quality.

This Is York College . . .

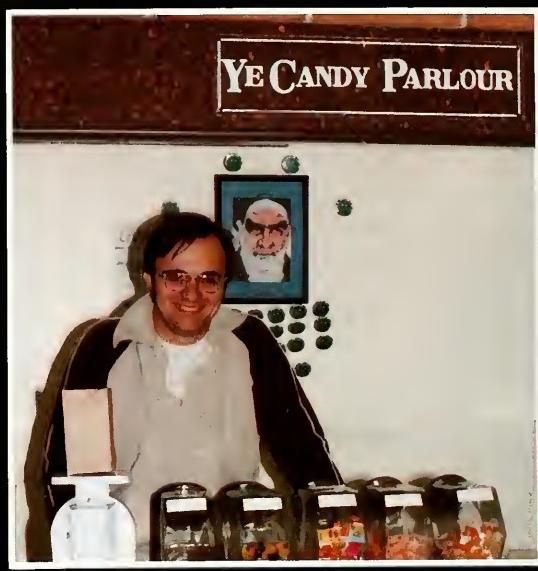

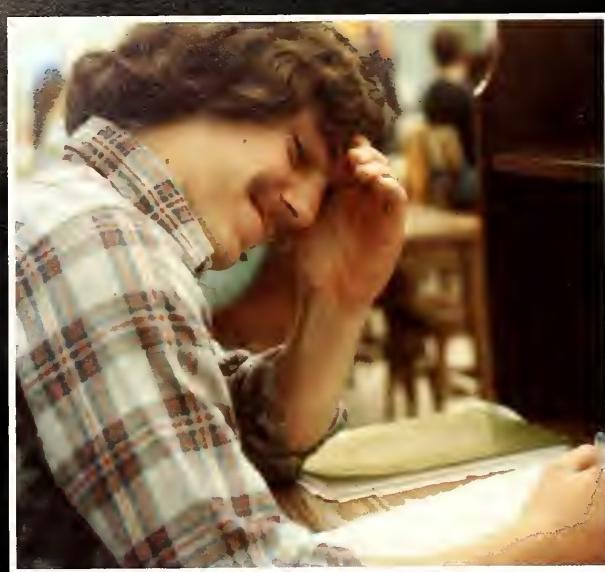

We schedule the same classes
... using the same number ...
walk in the same lines ... the same class ... the same meeting
... the same lunch ... we could probably do it in our sleep ...
Monday mornings we do ...

College Life at Times Seems Programmed . . .

. . . But, Nevertheless

Includes Many Opportunities . . .

Where else but Y.C.P. can you win the sexiest man on campus competition . . . do research . . . go on a field trip . . . ref a game . . . play "pro" football . . . dunk a basket . . . run a candy store . . . and still have time to cram for tomorrow's exam . . .

Build a bridge with ROTC... spin a disc for WVYC... run a mile... anything goes... Peter Frampton... Chuck Mangione... Intramural volleyball... catch a nap before class.

In Tribute to Monica L. Woodard

October 16, 1957-August 16, 1979

The Senior Section is dedicated to Monica Woodard who was a member of this class until her death August 16, 1979. A memorial scholarship fund has been established by the college's Afro-American Club, where she had served as treasurer.

A Tribute to Monica L. Woodard
A heart so kind — a face so dear,
The pain of her passing was hard to bear.

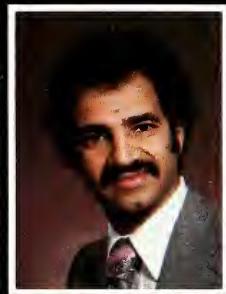

Although she was aware of her condition,
Monica maintained a strong and constant ambition.

She never moaned, groaned or complained,
A smile on her face always remained.

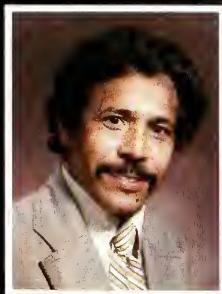

An angel came from heaven one night,
And Monica departed from our sight.

God does things he feels are best,
Monica Woodard is now at rest.

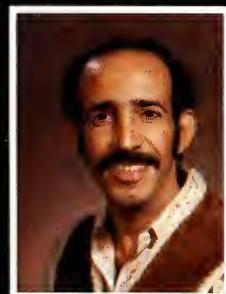

by Neicey Hudson (member of Afro-American Club)

The Men's season ended with a 6-12 record, a drop from the past few seasons. The record, however, does not truly reflect the overall success of the team. York dropped the weak sisters normally found on our schedule and added such powers as King's, Philadelphia Textile, and Dickinson in order to add more competition for the runners. Mark Raubenstine and Ken Sanders provided keen competition between them, usually finishing 1st and 2nd. Mark also set a new record on the Reservoir Hill course.

The Women's Cross Country season was a first for York College. The small, but very ambitious team started slowly, then picked up momentum winning two of the last five meets. This was outstanding considering the majority of the team members had no prior experience. The nucleus was freshmen Darla Berkowitz and Carol Warren, and sophomores Karen Cobb, Kim Ferguson, and Kim Gay. Darla was the leading runner throughout the year while Kim Gay, nursing a pre-season foot injury, provided the enthusiastic leadership to motivate the team. With these ladies returning for not one, but two or three more seasons there appears to be a brilliant future for Women's Cross Country.

The sixteen men who survived the first week of practice displayed tremendous determination and pride as they confronted numerically stronger squads throughout the season. Although the final log stood at 3-9-1, the team took virtually every game into the final minutes before the victor could be decided. Of the five games ending in overtime, York lost four and tied one. York simply lacked the edge on manpower, not talent in most games since many of the York players went the full 90 minutes of regulation time and 20 minutes of overtime without substitution. Senior goalkeeper Bill McEntee registered his first shutout as York defeated Allentown 9-0 before the Homecoming/Parent's Day crowd. Junior Jim Poulson received praise from many opposing coaches for his excellent play as a sweeper back. Freshman Martin Schnaars lead the team in scoring with seven goals while Hans Kayser contributed six goals and fourteen assists.

This was a rebuilding year for Coach Nina Reid with the loss of six key players through graduation. Inexperience and inconsistency in the goal area posed a problem all season as the young ladies tried to unify as a team. Desire and enthusiasm were always present; however they alone could not overcome the experienced competition. The future is promising with 23 players returning; including Katie O'Donnoghue, the team's high scorer.

The Spartanettes of York College completed a very successful season. Their record was an outstanding 26-2 and 27-4 after post-season play. Enroute to this outstanding performance was a third place finish in the West Virginia University Invitational Tournament. Our gals were seeded sixth in the NCAA Division III regional tournament but ankle injuries kept them from achieving their full potential. Seniors Jo Godfrey, Cathy Ensor, and Natalie Fuhrman will be missed next year but ten underclassmen stand ready to keep the program going.

The 1979-80 edition of Spartan Basketball was one of ups and downs. The hoopers started slow, winning only one of the first seven. However the next seven games saw York winning six. At this point Senior Captain Scott Mummert injured a knee and was sidelined for the duration of the season. The Spartans managed just four wins in the remaining thirteen games, finishing a respectful 10-16. With Mummert the only Senior on the team, the underclassmen provided tremendous determination and talent. Among these players was Sophomore Ken Riddick who set records with ease — including most points: 540, average per game: 20.8 and field goals made 221. Ken is already second in career scoring with 959 and only needs 447 more points to pass Scott Bortner as all-time leading scorer. Scott Mummert's abbreviated season did not stop him from setting career records in free-throws made: 233 and field goal percentage; 502. Scott is also third all-time scorer with 933 pts. With all but Mummert returning, next season should be both exciting and successful.

The wrestling team compiled a 7-6-1 dual meet record for its tenth straight winning season. In tournament competition the team placed eighth in the YCP Invitational and fifth in the Washington and Lee Invitational. Senior Jeff Maher was the only Spartan wrestler to win an individual championship in either tournament although several York grapplers did finish second and third. In post-season competition six YCP wrestlers participated in the NCAA Division III Eastern Regional Qualifying Tournament. Senior Joe Mahon was York's only qualifier for the national tournament but was eliminated from the tournament in an early round. Even though the success of this year's team can't compare to that of previous teams, their attitude and character can be compared. This year's wrestling team showed a lot of guts and pride overcoming numerous injuries and a lack of depth to turn a potentially losing season into another successful season for York College Wrestling.

The Lady Spartans completed a successful season with a 9-6 record. This included wins over larger Division III schools including the final game an exciting overtime victory against Bucknell. One highlight was a 58-16 blackout against Lebanon Valley in which the team recorded 29 steals, well about their 11.3 game average. Six seniors completed their last season at York and will be dearly missed. These girls include Jo Godfrey, Mary Calhoun, Ronnie Donovan, Gretchen Wolf, Terri Frank, and Karen Bosko. This was Roger Miller's first season as coach and we hope Roger will continue success in the future.

Practice began in the Fall of 1979 for the purposes of establishing the 1980 baseball squad. The head start proved helpful considering the team's impressive 19-11 record (.633 winning percentage) against a stiff level of competition found within the MAC. Seniors on the squad included Bill Riehl, Kevin Summerson, Chris Holweger, Scott Mummert and Jim Forbes. Special recognition is given to Scott Mummert who posted amazing individual records while playing with a severely injured knee. He had a record setting batting average of .478 and slugging percentage of .667. He walked 9 times, becoming a baserunner .538 times he appeared at the plate.

The track and field team finished the season with a 2-5 dual meet record, placed seventh in the Messiah Invitational and ninth in the conference championship meet. Lack of depth and inconsistent performances in the field events prevented the team from having a better season. In seven dual meets the team defeated only one of its opponents in the field events while defeating four of them in the track events. Despite the disappointing team showing several individuals turned in performances worth mentioning. Ken Sanders finished second in the 10,000 meter run in both the Towson and Messiah Invitationals, Rick Baublitz won the 200 meter dash and placed fourth in the 400 meter run at the Messiah Invitational, Mark Raubenstine took a fifth in the 3000 meter steeplechase at the Messiah Invitational and Tom Shay finished fifth in the javelin at the conference championship meet. One team record was broken this past season when Ken Benjamin jumped 21 feet 5 and  $\frac{3}{4}$  inches in the long jump surpassing the old record of 20 feet 10 $\frac{1}{2}$  inches. Also Senior Mark Raubenstine was honored by the College newspaper as the "male athlete of the year" for his leadership and accomplishments in cross country and track.

The first practice of the 1980 golf squad was held March 17. Players included Zack Tanner, Kurt Hess, Greg Hess, Chuck Vucetich, Tom Clare, Todd Blitz and playing coach Randy Miller. All practices and home matches were held at the Outdoor Country Club. With the loss of 4 starters through graduation, this year's squad was in the ultimate "rebuilding" stage compiling a 3-7 final record.

Tennis

This year's Tennis team showed improvement over past performances. Thirty-four individual matches were won as compared to twelve in the previous seasons. The addition of several transfer and freshman students added depth to the lineup. Players on the 1980 team were Regina Monk, Kathy Laughman, Betsy Summers, Dodie Kennard, Becky Shettel, Sally Holland, Sue Shull, Gwen Marlor, Sandy Gaines, Tina Veritas, Maria Dianastasis, and Joanie Gregory. Linda Meanor and Harriet Aldinger were Coach and Assistant Coach respectively.

Intramurals

"The Intramural Program is designed to provide the opportunity for physical development, the attainment of some degree of proficiency in various sports, and just plain fun. It is our hope that students will abide by the principals of good sportsmanship and will enjoy an atmosphere of friendly competition. We extend an open invitation to all students to participate in any aspect of the program." The 1980 Intramurals Director was Joe Mahon, assisted by Claire Winkler and Kathy Kerins (OPPOSITE PAGE, LOWER LEFT). Seasonal sports included flag football, Tennis, street hockey, volleyball, basketball, softball, and singles badminton.

V.I.P.'s

Activities — if you can't find anything to do at York College it's your own fault. Frank Mussano, assisted by Cathy Velez, teams up with the Senate to provide activities ranging from concerts to Gong shows to formal dinner dances. Other programming is added by Jake Jaquet (athletics), Georg Sheets (Concert Series), B.J. Olewiler (Film Society), Joe Mahon (Intramurals), and Claire Winkler (Student Entertainment Board). Also included are special college events i.e. graduation, awards dinners, etc. While Dean DeMeester oversees our academic affairs, Dean Call is kept busy with student affairs of which the preceding is a large part. This section is only a sampling of what we students participated in this year — to include everything would warrant another volume. Thank you to those involved for providing the other side of our college experience!
